प्रतिवेदन

दिनांक 3-6-2023 को हिमाचल प्रदेश विश्व विद्यालय के हिन्दी विभाग द्वारा 'कबीर साहित्य का मानवतावाद' विषय पर व्याख्याता डॉ. शोभा रानी की अध्यक्षता में व्याख्यान का आयोजन किया गया। इस विशेष कार्यक्रम में विषय विशेष के रूप में प्रो. संजीव कुमार शेरतक विश्वविद्यालय से उपस्थित हुए। सर्वप्रथम डॉ. शोभाराणी व्याख्याता जी ने प्रो. संजीव कुमार जी का स्वागत किया तबोपरान्त प्रो. संजीव कुमार जी ने कबीर साहित्य का मानवतावाद का साहित्य बताया उनका प्रत्येक चरम मानवतावाद के लिए समर्पित है। कबीर ने अपने जीवन में इसके लिए दुश्मनों को स्वीकार किया था। उनका जीवन मनुष्य के उद्बोधन में ही व्यतीत हुआ वह अपने लिए नहीं, समाज के लिए रोते और चिलाप करते हैं। महोदय जी ने इसके साथ-साथ कबीर के सभी विषयक चिन्तन को समझने के लिए कुछ चीजों पर ध्यान देना जरूरी है, एक तो यह कि उपासना या धर्म में नारी का क्या, इसका आत्म-परमार्थ में प्रियतमा-प्रेमी का रूपक। दरअसल कबीर ने सभी जगह स्त्री की अस्तीति नारी की है और न ही सभी जगह उसे श्रेष्ठ माना है। चरित चिन्तन के आधार पर स्त्री की महत्ता दी है। वाक्यान्त में अंत में गोदाधर्मों द्वारा पूरे गोत्र प्रभुओं को उद्धरण के सहित समझाकर उनका मानवधर्म किमा कार्यक्रम का संचालन कर रहे डॉ. वाम सिंह द्वारा विषय विशेष प्रो. संजीव कुमार जी का धन्यवाद किया गया। इस साहित्यिक कार्यक्रम में व्याख्याता डॉ. शोभा रानी, डॉ. अमली सिंह, डॉ. अरवि कुमार, डॉ. सुनीता, डॉ. पुष्पा चौधरी, डॉ. अमली उपाध्याय, नमस्त प्राध्यापकों सहित विद्यार्थियों, गोदाधर्मों ने उत्कृष्ट सहभागिता दर्ज करवायी।

Brief Report on Sanitation Drive of Sangti Area and Nearby University Road

Date: 09th June, 2023

The Department of History organized the activity of sanitation drive under the committees of the Eco Club and the Swachh Bharat Mission at the HPU campus successfully. The drive started sharply at 11.00 am. All the students of M.A. second & fourth semester and Ph.D. research scholars along with the coordinators of both committees and all the faculty members of the History department have shown their active participation in it. The primary focus area for today's sanitation drive was Sangti and the nearby University Road leading to Sangti.

The event began with a brief talk by Professor B. K Shivram, the Dean of Studies of H. P University. He motivated students to make the environment clean. Then Dr. Ankush Bhardwaj, chairman Department of History addressed to students. Dr. Vinay Kumar Sharma, the coordinator of the Eco Club, emphasized the importance of cleanliness and individual responsibility toward maintaining a clean environment. Ms. Roshni Devi, the Coordinator of the Swachh Bharat Mission, gave a rallying call to the participating students, encouraging their active participation in such drives.

Participants were divided into two teams: one focusing on the Sangti area and the other on the University Road leading to Sangti. Equipped with gloves, masks, and trash bags, the teams systematically moved through the designated areas, picking up litter and waste materials.

The Sangti area, in particular, saw an intensive cleanup. The area, frequently visited by students and locals alike, was littered with plastics, food waste, and other discarded materials. Today's drive significantly improved the cleanliness of the area.

The team responsible for the University Road ensured the entire stretch leading to Sangti was devoid of waste. A significant amount of roadside litter, including plastic wrappers and bottles, was collected and segregated for proper disposal.

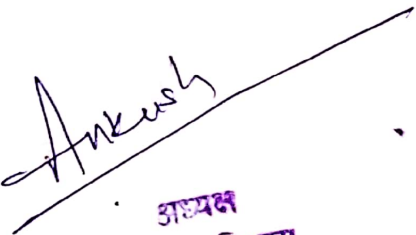

The Cleanliness and Sanitation Drive was a resounding success, significantly improving the sanitation and cleanliness of Sangti and the University Road. The students showcased their proactive approach to cleanliness and demonstrated their commitment to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

The Department of History's Eco Club and the Swachh Bharat Mission Committee extend their thanks to all participants for their enthusiastic involvement. Such initiatives underline the importance of collective efforts in maintaining and promoting cleanliness in our surroundings.

India's G20 Presidency: Department of Environmental Science, Himachal Pradesh University organised Jan Bhagidari events at Shimla

India G20 Presidency: As we know that India has been selected for the G20 Presidency for one year from 1 December 2022 to 30 November 2023. India's G20 logo contrasts planet Earth with the lotus, India's national flower and the theme is 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' or 'One Earth-One Family-One Future'. The purpose of establishing G20 is to create an atmosphere that supports equitable global growth and development. They bring together the most powerful economies in the world, both developed and emerging, to talk about global financial and economic stability. The Environmental Science department of Himachal Pradesh University (HPU) has organised one day programme of Jan Bhagidari (public participation) activities to commemorate India's G20 presidency on 22. June. 2023.

The department organized four activities including speech competition, poster making competition, quiz competition and Swachhta awareness campaign in selected area under the leadership of Dr. Kalyani Supriya, Dr. Nisha Rani and Mr. Kuldeep Manu. On this day Chairman, Dr. Mahender Singh Thakur congratulated the department for conducting a series of activities successfully in a very short period of time. Lauding the Jan Bhagidari events, Dr. Mahender Singh Thakur highlighted how important it is to organise such activities by department and in keynote address he said that the Jan Bhagidari events emphasize the crucial role of people's participation in nation-building, particularly the youth, reinforcing our belief in their power. Active citizen engagement shapes our diverse and democratic country's trajectory, ensuring government actions align with people's needs. Initiatives like the Jan

Bhagidari events foster a sense of ownership and collective responsibility, nurturing a shared commitment to shaping the outcomes of the G20.
