

4.2.1

HPU Central Library came into existence with the establishment of H.P. University in 1970. It is housed in a unique structural designed building which is based on the design of Aryabhata (First Indian Satellite). Evers since the Post-Graduate Centre of the University in Shimla was made a nucleus of setting up the Library, there has been manifold increase in the size to its collection and demand of its services. Its collection has since then grown from 15000 to more than 235947 books and journals. The Library functions for 12 hours on working days and for 7 hours on Sunday/holidays.

Educational research institutions, Universities of repute, academic bodies and other national and international institutions to facilitate the users by sharing of data required in various research activities among the research scholars and students of both the undergraduate the post graduate students. This is done by both collaborating with organizations in exchange of data as well as subscription to various peer reviewed journals (both national and international) as proposed by the research scholars and the faculty members of the various departments in form of e-journals through e-Shodhsindhu and print journals, periodicals, magazines and other resources material as desired by the students and the faculty members. The Library has a direct access to the thesis which are already uploaded to INFLIBNET (Shodhganga & Shodhsindhu) after digitization of its total collection. The facility of anti-plagiarism software URKUND has been provided to research scholars and faculty members by INFLIBNET. The database developed by the Central Library regarding the thesis is updated and uploaded regularly to Shodhganga (INFLIBNET) on priority basis. Not only this the Central Library continuously thrives to Infrastructural Development of the Library:

Library automation moved towards automated the library with ILMS, KOHA software using RFID for circulation through smart cards for library members.

KIOSKS:- 02 Nos. of KIOSKS machines has been installed for the library users to know about the availability of particular document in the Library.

ETD Lab:- electronic Thesis and Dissertation laboratory has been established in the Library to facilitate its users.

Computer Laboratory for special category reader: One computer Laboratory has been setup for the visually impaired Readers in the Library to cater their special needs.
